PHIL NEAL

HOPEFULLY . . . all being very, very well . . . this could be our penultimate home game of the season! I say this in the hope that I am not tempting fate but, like you, I am hoping we can finish off the job we set out to do inside the normal course of the season, without having the need to play any extra games. We have got to keep our feet on the ground because we have achieved nothing yet. Nothing's decided until the last ball has been kicked but that victory at Crewe on Tuesday night was just the shot in the arm we needed.

We were all obviously delighted with the win because our away form has been indifferently. But the season as a whole has gone very well.

One thing which has caused us problems recently is the injury situation. It is worth pointing out that during that excellent run we put together earlier in the season we had a settled side. I was able to select from a more or less full squad for every game. That's something I haven't been able to do for quite some time and, what with one thing or another, I have had to chop and change things around.

But we are not moaning, just getting on with the job. As for today, I know Frank Clark likes his Leyton Orient team to play their football so we should have a good game in store. Our principal aim, obviously, has to be to make the most of home advantage and take the three points.

Once again, I know I have kept on about this all season, you can play a major part in helping us get what we want. The support has been great, both home and away and I was especially pleased with the following at Crewe. To sell every single ticket was brilliant.

I know we can rely on your continued support in our remaining games and I can promise in return that you can rely on us to give it everything we've got.

An update of today's opposition

LEYTON ORIENT

This afternoon we extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters of Leyton Orient. The O's are playing their third away game in the space of eight days but will come to Burnden full of confidence after a run of four wins, two draws and only one defeat in their last seven league games.

A 1-0 home win over Huddersfield on 23 March ended a disastrous run of seven successive league defeats which had seen Leyton Orient fall down the league table after looking likely play-off candidates. The O's followed that up with a 1-0 home win over another side with promotion aspirations, Bury, drew 3-3 at Crewe and then beat Bournemouth 2-0 at Brisbane Road. A 0-1 home defeat at the hands of Southend put a temporary halt to the run but last Saturday Orient won 2-1 at Stoke and in midweek drew 3-3 at Mansfield.

Mark Cooper scored two goals in the space of four minutes midway through the second half to earn the O's fine win at the Victoria Ground and followed up with another double at Field Mill last Tuesday, Mansfield, by securing a point with a Stringfellow equaliser two minutes from time. Cooper has scored six goals in the last six games and is now second to Steve Castle in the O's scoring charts. Castle added another goal to his tally in midweek and now has 17 in league and cup.

After Tuesday's games Leyton Orient were in 13th position in the league with 57 points from 39 games. Frank Clark's side are currently nine points behind seventh-placed Huddersfield, who currently occupy the last of the play-off places, with three games in hand. A consistent run of results in their last seven games could conceivably take the O's into the promotion reckoning.

Away form has been Orient's major problem this season, with only 14 points gathered on their travels. Wins at Reading, Wigan and Stoke, all by a 2-1 scoreline, and draws at Grimsby, Bournemouth, Rotherham, Crewe and Mansfield have been interspersed with some heavy defeats at Tranmere (0-3), Bradford (0-4) and Shrewsbury (0-3), though five of their eleven league reversals have been by a single goal.

At Brisbane Road Leyton Orient are a match for most sides, as a record of 14 wins and a draw in 20 games illustrates. Highest score was an impressive 4-0 victory over Tranmere in February.

In Cup competitions this season, Orient reached the third round of both the Rumbelows Cup and FA Cup, losing to Crystal Palace and Swindon respectively, in both cases after replays. Defeats at the hands of Fulham and Brentford put paid to any hopes of moving past the preliminary round stage of the Leyland DAF Cup.

Goalkeeper Paul Hoald joined Leyton Orient from Sheffield United in the summer of 1988 and has made over 90 league appearances in his three seasons at Brisbane Road. The 22 year-old came up through the trainee ranks at Bromall Lane without breaking into the league side. Another 22 year-old, Greenwich born Paul Newell, made his Orient debut at Bury in February and had a nine match stint between the sticks. The former Southend goalkeeper moved to Brisbane Road last summer.

New Zealand born Chris Zorich made his Orient debut at Cambridge last October and has since been a regular member of the first team squad. The 21 year old is a product of the club's youth ranks. Keith Day is nearing the end of his fourth season with Orient after joining the club from Colchester United in 1987. The 28 year-old defender was a product of non-league Aveyley and recently made his 250th league appearance. Adrian Whitebread, a former trainee made his league bow last season at Brentford, and this term has become a first team regular. The 19 year-old defender hails from Epping Terry Howard has been ever-present for the O's this season and has now made over 180 league appearances for the club since joining them from Chelsea in March 1987. The 25 year-old Stepney born defender was Player of the Season at Brisbane Road last year. Greg Fee has already played against the Wanderers this season while on loan to Preston from Sheffield Wednesday. The 26 year-old Halifax born defender, whose previous clubs include Bradford City and Boston United ironically made his full Leyton Orient debut against Preston at Deepdale in March.

Former Southampton midfielder Steve Baker made his 100th league appearance for the O's earlier this season. The 29 year-old, who was born in Newcastle, moved to Brisbane Road in March

1988. Steve Castle came up through the apprentice ranks at Brisbane Road and made his league debut in 1984-85. The 24 year-old Ilford born midfielder has completed 200 league games for the club and is Orient's leading scorer this season with 17 goals in league and cup. Carl Hoddle, whose brother Glenn was recently made Swindon Town manager, was signed from Bishop's Cleeve and made 26 appearances in his first season of league football in 1989-90. The 24 year-old midfielder was born in Harlow. Former England youth international Lee Harvey also hails from Harlow. The 24 year-old made his league debut in 1983-84 and has since made around 150 league appearances for the O's.

34 year-old midfielder Geoff Pike spent twelve seasons at Upton Park, making nearly 300 league appearances for West Ham, before moving to Notts County in 1987. He joined Orient last season and has since taken his career tally to around the 420 league games. Andy Sayer joined Orient from Fulham last season. The 24 year-old Brent born forward played previously for Wimbledon. Chris Bart-Williams has broken into the O's league side this season, scoring on his debut in the 4-0 home win over Tranmere in February. The teenager is in his first season as a full time player at Brisbane Road having been signed originally on schoolboy forms. Hackney born winger Danny Carter joined Orient from Billericay and made his league debut two seasons ago. The 21 year-old has been a regular this term.

Mark Cooper has scored two goals in each of the O's last two games. The 24 year-old former Cambridge, Spurs and Gillingham forward has made over 190 league appearances. Kevin Nugent, a 22 year-old striker, came up through the club's trainee ranks and made his league debut four years ago. This season he has tasted regular first-team action for the first time. Kenny Achampong was a close season signing from Charlton. The 24 year-old forward began his career at Fulham, coming up through the apprentice ranks at Craven Cottage, and making his league debut in 1984-85. Robert Taylor recently joined Orient on a loan spell from Norwich City and scored twice after coming on as substitute at Crewe in only his second game for the club. The 19 year-old forward is a product of the Canaries' youth ranks. Greg Berry joined Orient from East Thurrock United before the start of last season. The 20 year-old Essex born winger has been a regular member of the first-team squad this season.

TEAM PHOTOGRAPH

DUKE WILLIAM FC

Duke William FC enjoyed their most successful season to date, narrowly missing the treble, losing out on the main one, the Monteraze Premier League. After finishing level on points they lost 1-0 to a Mick Wild goal in a sudden death play off with old rivals Morris Green. Their success was achieved with all round team support but keeper Stuart Davies, striker Ian McDonough, The T.P. Contracts Sunday League Golden Boot Winner with 23 goals deserve a special mention, along with Player/Manager "Brian Ralph Coates Howard", now semi retired running his new business venture as mine host at the Duke William, Ainsworth. He promises a free pint to all on their tenth visit. The Duke also won the T.P. Contracts Sunday League and the A & B Motors Cup. Morris Green had another successful season winning the Monteraze Premier League for the fourth season running. Keeper Lee Bonney kept seventeen clean sheets, conceding just one goal in their only defeat to Mid Table team Gallaghers Seven "A John Goodier goal". They scored 45 goals, 19 by Tony Ashbarry, who collects the Premier Golden Boot Award for his efforts. Green finished second in the T.P. Contracts Sunday League and made a Quarter Final exit from the A & B Motors Cup. Gallaghers Seven won the Premier Sportsmanship Award. The R.S. First Division League proved to be very competitive. Newcomers Church Inn L/L had a tremendous start taking maximum points from their first 9 games, but fell by the wayside to finish in fourth place. Highfield FC finished strongly in third place. Stags Head sealed their hold on the Championship, beating a second placed Collie Carpets 1-0 with a first minute goal from Phil Berry. Stags striker Ian Horrocks had a great season scoring 27 goals to win the R.S. First Division Golden Boot Award. P.W.S. Dental Labs. won the First Division Sportsmanship Award. The A & B Motors Cup provided a few shocks, the biggest being Brightmet United's 3-2 Quarter Final victory over holders Morris Green. 2-2 after normal time, skipper John Wakes scored a last minute extra time winner to put his team into the Semi Finals. Ainsworth Arms lost their first Group game 1-0 to Lane Ends but rallied to go all the way to the Final where they were a little unlucky to lose 1-0 to a late goal from Duke's Ian McDonough. Ainsworth have a nice blend and should do well in the Summer League, sponsored by HB ELECTRONICS. Highfield FC flew the First Division flag progressing to the Semi Finals beating Premier Division side Lynton Seven 2-0 on the way. Shaun Danby and Marcus Brown their outstanding players. Clydeside Seven won the T.P. Contracts Sunday League Sportsmanship Award.

The Management and Teams wish to thank the respective sponsors and hope they continue to favour us with their valued support.

Yours in Sport, Sports Centre Manager.

BARCLAYS LEAGUE-PROMOTION AND RELEGATION

The decision taken last summer by League clubs to increase the size of the First Division to 22 teams will see a resultant increase in the overall size of the League as the changes filter down to the Fourth Division, where, for the next two years, there is no relegation.

Next season the First Division will consist of 22 clubs, the Second and Third Division 24 clubs each, and the Fourth Division 23 clubs. The League will therefore increase to 93 members. As with this season, there will be no relegation from the Fourth Division with the Football Conference champions making the step up. Thus the following season (1992/93) the Fourth will return to 24 clubs and The League increase to 94 members. All promotion and relegation positions this season are shown below along with the format for the end-of-season Barclays League Play-Offs.

COMMUNITY NEWS

Today we welcome Plodder Lane School who have been on our Coaching Scheme for the last 6 weeks. The School was down earlier in the week for a tour round the club and to meet some of the Wanderers players. I hope the kids enjoy themselves this afternoon and then bring their mums and dads to the games to cheer the lads on.

Recently, the Community Scheme ran a soccer school and pictured below are a number of budding goal-keepers who were put through their paces in one of the sessions we held. Some of their expressions must mean that they did work hard!

The Junior Whites are running a coach to Swansea on the 4th May and bookings are now being taken. If any Junior White is interested in going give us a ring and I will try and sort it out.

The scheme are running an end of season disco for the Under 16's with prices at 50p a ticket. It's being held at Martfield Bowling Club and the tickets are on sale from the Community Office.

The Junior Whites 'Player of the Year' is being held on Tuesday, 7th May. However not all voting papers are in yet — so come on you Whites — send in your 1 2 3 nominations to the Community Office or else your player cannot win.

I hope everyone has a great time this afternoon and the lads get the right result.

Yours, Geoff Lomax.

POSTBAG

Dear Sir/Madam,

Given the bad pre-publicity and tense atmosphere surrounding the same on Sunday between Bolton and Birmingham I thought a few lines of congratulations to your Club was in order.

Notwithstanding the overwhelming police presence which was inevitable given the press coverage and out of your control I thought the rest of the organisation was superb.

Your ground is excellent—one of the very best outside Division One and the admission price was surprisingly low compared to inflated prices for away fans elsewhere.

Supporting a supposed 'big' club one of the worst things about the Third Division, apart from the appalling refereeing standards, is the standard of the grounds and yours was a pleasant surprise and will be a credit to Division Two as will be the parking, catering and general organisation. I feel sure that your team will at least survive in the Second Division and wish you all the best for the future.

Thanks for a good day out, pity you didn't let us win—at least we're going to Wembley.

Yours sincerely,
Michael French
(Moseley, Birmingham.)

without a win during April after going down 3-2 at West Brom where Dennis Stevens and Brian Birch hit the net. 1963: Revenge was gained for a 5-0 defeat earlier in the season at Aston Villa when the Wanderers ran out 4-1 winners at Burnden. Wyn Davies scored twice with Peter Deakin and Dennis Butler getting the others for a Bolton side who were playing three games a week in an attempt to clear the fixture backlog. 1968: Current PFA Sec-

Tuesday night's win at Crewe was an exciting encounter with the Wanderers fighting back from being an early goal down. Tony Philliskirk with two penalties and super sub David Reeves scoring with virtually his first touch saw the lads home. The win kept the Whites in third place and right on the heels of second placed Grimsby Town.

IN CONVERSATION

Listeners to local BBC radio station GMR will no doubt know that Alan has been covering the Wanderers for a number of years now—in fact since 1983. But I wonder if they realise that he first watched the Whites back in 1949. “The first match I came to was against Stoke as a 10 year-old. We won 4-0 and the likes of Tommy Woodward, Matt Gillies and Johnny Wheeler were gracing Burnden” added Alan.

Hooked from this time on, Alan was a regular in the Lever End coming down with Mum and Dad, with his love for the Wanderers transgressing into involvement within the Club, with Alan taking up the story, “It was back in 1969 that I was asked to help with the public address and it gradually progressed from there”.

Indeed Alan got more and more involved with the Club and played a leading role in the development of the successful ‘Lifeline’ draw in which he travelled the length of Great Britain with former Commercial Manager Alf Davies and Nat Lofthouse selling the successful system to over 75 clubs from as far apart as Inverness down to Southampton.

Alan in fact runs his own P.R. consultancy and has got involved in organising a number of sporting events including the popular Northern Tennis Tournament, which attracts the likes of John McEnroe and Peter Sampras, and has grown to be biggest men’s tournament held in this country outside of Wimbledon. Alan states, “It’s a great tournament which takes a great deal of organising, but I love it”.

Tennis is one of Alan’s favourite sports outside of football and he revealed that he tries to play at least twice a week, while followers of Basketball—which was very popular just a few years ago in Bolton—will no doubt remember his involvement in that area.

returning to his GMR role and it really is a job he loves doing—covering the Wanderers. “That’s right, but I do try to stay impartial” he added with a rueful smile. Wembley in 1989 and the Sherpa

Van success over Torquay is Alan’s highlight covering the Wanderers so far. “I managed to get on the pitch before and after the match and we featured a full live commentary of the game, with David Oates co-presenting. It’s something I wouldn’t have missed for the world” he added proudly.

Alan’s professional attitude to the job means errors are kept down to the minimum but he did let us in to a little secret of one he dropped a few weeks ago—in the local derby at Preston when live on air, he looked up from his notes and saw a white shirted number seven being replaced by a substitute and it wasn’t until he had commented on the fact that a Bolton player was being taken off that he realised that Bolton weren’t playing in white that day, but in their away strip.

With the promotion stakes now really hotting up it’s not only the fans on the terraces whose fingers are crossed, but also on the air waves with Alan as keen as any supporter to see his club gain success and get back into the higher divisions.

TONY CUNNINGHAM

CAREER RECORD

This afternoon we feature our more recent signing Tony Cunningham, who joined the Wanderers in a pre deadline day deal from local neighbours Bury.

Already in his short time here Tony has made his presence felt with a superb solo goal against

Birmingham and a nasty head injury which required six stitches in the away game at Cambridge. We asked him had he found it hard to adapt since he joined the Club. "It's never easy adjusting especially with only seven or eight games left; you don't get that advantage of getting to know your team mates during the pre-season period and with each game gaining in importance it's vital that I get in as soon as possible."

The big man though has soon become a favourite with the Burnden crowd and this is something which has really pleased him. They've been brilliant and I can't thank them enough. I was just pleased to get that third goal against Birmingham to reward their support." We asked him about that goal—which really did take some scoring. "Well, to be honest, that's the sort of goal I've scored many times, beating the defender for pace and you've got to fancy your chances on a one to one situation with the keeper" he added.

Tony could well have missed that game because it was only a few days earlier that he received that nasty facial blow in the game at Cambridge. "I was advised not to play by a couple of doctors but I was determined to turn out although the consequences, if I had taken another knock on it, would have been pretty bad." That particular injury has led to Tony wearing a head band. Is this something he will now have to wear permanently? "Hopefully just to the end of the season, with the injury still very tender" stated Tony.

With well over a 100 goals in a career that has seen him at Lincoln, Barnsley, Sheffield Wednesday, Manchester City, Newcastle, Blackpool, Bury and of course ourselves we asked him to pick out which had been his most memorable spell. "That's not easy really because I've enjoyed my times at all these clubs but if you're pinning me down I'd plump for my time at Sheffield Wednesday when we were at the top of the Second Division and winning week in and week out" he said.

Away from the football action Tony is taking a Business Studies degree which takes up most of his spare time.

Returning to recent events and we asked him how the move to Bolton came about. "Well it was a pleasant surprise really. The Bury chairman informed me of the Bolton interest and it just progressed from there."

With only four League games to go how does Tony assess the present situation? "Well it's very tight. The win at Crewe the other night was vital, the team did well to come back from being a goal down but in saying the spirit and attitude is first class and if we can continue in this vein we will do well" added a forthright Tony.

We asked him cautiously did he think our style of play would be more suited to the Second Division. "Very much so. You get more time to play football in the higher divisions. You could say it's a lot cruder in the Third, and with our style very much conducive to playing a passing game I think our system would go down very well in the Second Division" he added.

Although Tony Cunningham is still gelling into the Wanderers set-up there is no doubt of the importance of his signing. The striker has already proved to be a real handful for defenders and his experience plus qualities leading the front line can only benefit the Wanderers in their quest for promotion.

A disputed goal after only 40 seconds put the Wanderers behind at Bootham Crescent, Iain Dunn scoring after the ball appeared to already have gone out of play from a left wing corner.

The Wanderers equalised in the 22nd minute, Darren Oliver firing home after Neil Fisher's attempt had struck the post.

York regained the lead four minutes from half time through Ian Blackstone but again the Wanderers showed the character that has seen them lose just once away from home this season.

Gary Henshaw's 65th minute left wing corner found Craig Lewin whose header was blocked before Nicky Bentham hit the net with a shot from 8 yards.

Three minutes from time Blackstone struck what looked to be a winner for York but straight from the kick-off Stuart Storer and Mike Jeffrey combined to set up Darren Oliver for another equaliser.

It took only 8 minutes for Bolton to open the scoring against bottom club Wigan Athletic, David Reeves completing a move that had involved both Neil Fisher on the left and Stuart Storer on the right. In the 20th minute both Gary Henshaw and Reeves created space for Stuart Storer to blast the ball home from 16 yards.

Five minutes later the Wigan defence was at sixes and sevens from a left wing corner which resulted in Paul Connsive chipping the ball across to Reeves who rose above everyone to head the third goal.

The Wanderers lost Mark Winstanley at half time with a recurrence of his ankle injury but in the 67th minute Reeves completed his hat trick when he literally walked the ball over the line.

Two minutes from time Storer won the ball on the right and his cross to the far post was placed into the bottom corner of the net by Neil Fisher.

Division Two

Attendance: 7,547

Orient 1 — 1 Bolton Wand.

(Roffey)

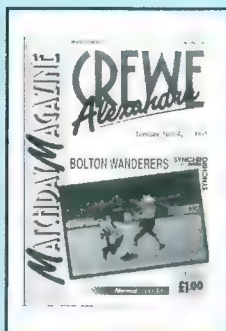

(Greaves, pen.)

Tuesday night's fine 3-1 victory at Crewe saw us encounter yet another £1 programme but to be fair they did feature colour photographs from recent games, which must have involved quite a bit of expense with the colour separations.

The programme itself contained 32 pages of the A5 size format. Editor Harold Finch as usual stamped his own unique style on the magazine and this led once again to a most interesting read.

My favourite features included 'Third Dimension' and 'Welcome to our Visitors'. If we were to pick out any faults with this programme it would probably have to be the design and layout which could, with a bit of flair, lead to improving this to one of the better programmes in the Division.

Overall view, once again a good read with colour photos helping to give the programme a brighter look about it than in recent seasons. Questionable though whether the £1 tag does really give it value for money.

ALL CHANGE AT CREWE

It couldn't have happened to a nicer lad when David Reeves stepped into the action with just over ten minutes left last Tuesday night at Gressy Road, the home of Crewe Alexandra, and scored the decisive third goal which secured three valuable points in our aim for automatic promotion.

With the recent signing of Tony Cunningham from Bury who has done a fine job since he joined the Whites, Reeves has been the unlucky one who has had to step down to the subs bench but last week he asked to play for the Reserves in the home fixture against Wigan and scored a tremendous hat-trick. Okay, so maybe it didn't set the world on fire, but the determination and attitude was first class and it's no wonder he's so popular down here at Burnden Park.

Our other goalscorer the other night was of course Tony Philliskirk who took his tally for the season to twenty-six with two perfectly placed penalties. It's certainly been a hectic couple of weeks for the likeable Geordie who became a dad last week with the birth of a baby boy called Daniel. Well done 'T'!

The support once again was superb but I would like to give special credit to our travelling army of fans, numbering well in excess of a thousand, who travelled down to Bournemouth last weekend. The Bolton end that day was a mass of yellow with the new shirt really looking the part, the result as we know was very disappointing but the backing was brilliant, especially when you think the mileage covered was well over the 500 miles mark in total.

With points now so vital, today's game with Leyton Orient is crucial not only for the three points at stake but also to put pressure on all the other sides at the top. It really does look like going to the very last day if the situation carries on as it has done over the past few weeks with all the top sides suffering some shock results along the way.

Our visitors this afternoon will be seeking revenge for the defeat we inflicted on them back in October when a Stuart Storer effort was enough to secure the points in a game in which you could say we lived rather dangerously almost entirely throughout the ninety minutes. That win was really just at the start of our superb run which was the foundation to where we are now—everything to play for. After this afternoon's game we have only three league games left with Rotherham and Swansea to visit and our old friends Chester down here at Burnden. It's going to be nail-biting stuff, but exciting all the same.

On closing today, wasn't that a surprise the other day with Graeme Souness returning to his old stamping ground at Liverpool as manager? 'Shock, horror, probe must have been the reaction from the Rangers fans, but these days in football anything is possible.

My final words must be on our Reserve side who are currently striving—like the first team—for promotion. Last Monday I went over to Oldham to see them in action and what a game it turned out to be. The scoreline of 1-0 to ourselves no way justified what an exciting game it was. Experienced pro's Kevin Rose and Mark Came were superb while youngsters Darren Oliver, Neil Fisher and Mike Jeffrey all had outstanding games, and talk about the goal from Paul Comstive—what a cracker!

Enjoy the game today and keep up the tremendous vocal support.

Leyton Orient are today making their 18th Football League visit to Burnden Park having taken maximum points on only two occasions.

The first was in April 1963 when they won 1-0 in a First Division game, only three days after the Wanderers had won by an identical score at Brisbane Road thanks to a Denis Butler penalty.

In September 1970 the Londoners again secured the points, thanks to a solitary goal from Barrie Fairbrother, this encounter taking place in Division Two. The following January Leyton defeated Bolton 3-1 in London to record their only 'double'.

It was in season 1908/09 that our paths first crossed, the Londoners, then known as Clapton

Wayne Foster scores Bolton's second goal against Orient in November 1983.

Orient, were defeated 2-0 in each game with Billy Hughes scoring all four goals that helped secure the Second Division championship.

Hughes was again on the mark on Orient's next visit to Burnden in February 1911, a goal also from Harold Hilton giving a 2-0 win for the Wanderers, promotion to Division One this season being secured by virtue of runners up spot.

It was during the 1970's that the clubs began to meet each other on a more regular basis. In October 1974 goals from Roy Greaves and Paul Jones won the points for Bolton at Burnden in what was Ian Greaves' first game as manager for the club. This encounter also saw Peter Reid make his league debut when he came on as substitute for Hugh Curran.

In November 1983 the clubs met for the first time in the Third Division with Bolton running out 3-2 winners at Burnden. Gerry McElhinney, Wayne Foster and Warren Joyce scored for the Wanderers with Kevin Godfrey and Keith Houchen replying for the Londoners.

Last season a 42nd minute goal from Barry Cowdrill, his first league goal for Bolton, broke the deadlock at Burnden. Danny Carter equalised on the hour for Leyton but a 70th minute strike from Tony Philliskirk gave the Wanderers victory.

Our overall league record against Leyton Orient is as follows:

Home	17	11	4	2	24	8
Away	18	4	7	7	17	25

PLAYED FOR BOTH CLUBS

Forward Ian Moores began his league career with Stoke City, hailing from nearby Newcastle-under-Lyne, he made his league debut against Leicester City in April 1974.

Whilst in the Potteries he made two appearances for the England Under 23 side against Wales and Czechoslovakia.

In August 1976, after scoring 14 league goals for Stoke, he moved South to join Tottenham Hotspur. He scored on his debut for the Londoners in a league cup tie at Middlesbrough and also in his first league game away at Manchester United.

He scored a hat trick for Spurs in their 9-0 win against Bristol Rovers in October 1977 but managed only 6 goals in 29 league appearances.

In October 1978 Spurs recouped the £80,000 they had paid to Stoke when they sold him to Orient. At Brisbane Road he was top scorer in 1980/81 and appeared in both defence and midfield. He scored 26 goals in 117 league appearances for Orient and in July 1982 joined Bolton on a free transfer.

At Burnden he scored only 3 goals in 26 league appearances, his last, in a 4-1 defeat at Charlton, being the club's last goal in the Second Division.

He later played in Cyprus with Nicosia and appeared at Wembley with Tamworth in the FA Vase Final. He scored in his side's 3-0 replay win at Peterborough.

His Bolton record is as follows:

1945/46 SEASON

Football in general ran into a boom period after the hostilities and Bolton Wanderers were no exception.

Despite a successful season on the field, 1945/46 can only be remembered for the loss of 33 lives on March 9th 1946, when, in an FA Cup 6th round second leg tie against Stoke City at Burnden, barriers collapsed causing not only death but injury to many.

The league season opened with a 3-2 reverse at Everton who included in their side Bolton born players Tommy Lawton and Norman Greenhalgh along with ex Wanderers youngster Stan Benham.

Early season saw the club lose the services of Don Howe and Tom Sinclair when both were recalled for service abroad. Ray Westwood and Albert Geldard were still stationed in Italy and latter spending some time coaching.

After the opening day defeat seven games passed without loss until an unexpected defeat was incurred at bottom club Leeds, who hit their winner two minutes from time to register their first win of the season. Revenge was swift however when a week later the Wanderers hit them for six without reply.

The first of the Wanderers professionals to be demobilised was George Taylor, during October 1945 he took up residence in his native Ashton under Lyne but played few games during the season after dislocating his shoulder against Manchester United.

In the same month Mal Barrass was selected for England and Danny Winter for Wales in the victory international at West Brom.

Four consecutive defeats in November placed the Wanderers in a precarious position but matters were improved when Hanson, Hurst, Westwood and Geldard were all demobbed. This allowed a more normal preparation for league games for trained Bob Young.

After repeated requests, the club allowed Welsh international full back Danny Winter to join Chelsea, the side he had guested for during the War.

The return of the FA Cup stimulated a greater interest increasing crowds further. The ties were once again played over two legs to increase club revenue which had been decimated during the War.

The Wanderers entertained local rivals Blackburn Rovers in the third round, taking a single goal lead to Ewood for the second leg, thanks to a goal from Willie Moir four minutes from time on a glue pot pitch.

Bolton took the second leg more comfortably by 3-1 before facing Liverpool in the next round.

They were sent packing with a 5-0 defeat, two Lofthouse goals being quickly followed up by an opportunist hat trick from Ray Westwood. The Wanderers lost the second second leg 2-0 but the tie was academic.

Westwood and Lofthouse were again the heroes in the fifth round when, after a 1-0 win over Middlesbrough at Burnden, the sides drew 1-1 at Ayresome, the crowd of 51,612 paying record ground receipts at the time of £5708.

The game in the North East commenced a run of five consecutive away games for the club only one of which was lost. The last encounter of this sequence was the first leg of the 6th round of the FA Cup at Stoke City which resulted in favour of Bolton thanks to two Ray Westwood goals.

The second leg ended scoreless to put the Wanderers into the semi-finals which was so overshadowed by events that victory couldn't be measured in terms of pleasure.

Unfortunately the Wanderers met their Waterloo in the semi-finals when Charlton won 2-0 at Villa Park. League form however remained consistent and only one defeat, at home to Newcastle, in the final twelve league games was incurred.

A final position of third resulted, nine points behind champions Sheffield United, the best defensive record in the league with only 45 goals conceded, but with only 32 goals scored at home it gave the club a record only Chesterfield and Blackburn could lay claim to be worse.

TODAY'S REFEREE

J. W. LLOYD
(Wrexham)

Mr. Lloyd commenced refereeing in Welsh National League in 1973, progressing through Northern Premier League to Football League Line in 1981/82. He was appointed to Referees List in season 1985/86. Important matches officiated in include Welsh Cup Final in 1989/90 season. Mr. Lloyd is married with one daughter and employed as an accountant; his interest and hobbies include cricket, golf and music.

HELPING THE GAME

A fine new stand - one of the many initiatives supported by Trust funds.

The Football Trust 1990 has been created to help the game at all levels and to assist clubs meet the requirements of Lord Justice Taylor's Final Report.

Safety and comfort for all spectators is the primary objective and substantial funds have been made available for the provision of seating at Football League grounds. At the same time the Trust's commitment to family and community initiatives will continue with the provision of more family enclosures, better toilet facilities, covered accommodation, artificial pitches for local use and the development of women's and junior football particularly through community programmes, plus a wide range of policing and crowd control measures.

Each year The Trust expects to receive £20 million from the reduction in Pool Betting Duty plus the £10 million continuing contribution from the Spotting-the-Ball competition organised by Littlewoods, Vernons and Zettlers. This money will be invested in projects which benefit football throughout the United Kingdom.
